NEW DELHI: Mining conglomerate Vedanta Ltd's President and Group Chief Human Resource Officer Rajesh Padmanabhan has resigned from his post.

"Padmanabhan has decided to pursue his career outside the company (Vedanta Ltd)," Vedanta said in a statement.

During his tenure, Padmanabhan made significant contributions towards organisational architecture, talent management and leadership development, the firm added.
According to his LinkedIn profile, Padmanabhan has also worked with Patni Computers, now called iGate, Oberoi Group, Essel Propack and ICICI Bank.

---

FEATURED ARTICLES

- 20s and 30s are new ages in India for mid-life crisis
  - Professor Jagdish N Sheth says corporate CEOs are working with their companies so hard their lives that they haven't built relationships.
  - IT cos mull midweek break to cut stress level of employees
  - Indians working in US find their job less stressful: Survey

- IT cos mull midweek break to cut stress level of employees
  - Fed warns of catastrophe if $14.3-trn debt limit not raised
  - Tableau Software, Atlassian prepare for IPO amid market woes

- India’s first e-reader Wink unveiled, supporting 15 languages
  - Hyundai: Price war under way in US car market
  - BF Utilities rise on court verdict report

- Farmer sells land to make film on drought in Nashik
  - Shell India eyeing 13% share in lubricant market

---

Taking toll

- 10 best tax-saving investments
- Karnataka HC allows UBHL to sell around 13 million shares of USL
- Tata Docomo launches emergency talktime credit service