Unfair trading practices as well as the increasing dominance of global companies originating in the East and the West are threatening Europe’s economy. EU Competition Policy is central to the functioning of the internal market and is one of our most powerful tools to ensure a level playing field for all European companies. The Competition Policy Working Group concentrates on recommending smarter competition policies that will help European business to also compete successfully at scale on the international stage.

Featured Documents

22 October 2020

Expert Papers responding to EC consultations on Competition Policy

After the launch of ERT’s flagship paper Competing at Scale: EU Competition Policy fit for the Global Stage in 2019, the ERT Competition Policy Working Group has elaborated 3 Expert...
7 October 2019

Competing at Scale: EU Competition Policy fit for the Global Stage

Leaders of some of Europe's largest employers have today called for an EU competition policy which would allow European businesses to compete successfully at scale in today's globalised and fast-moving...

View Document

24 April 2019

Strengthening Europe's place in the world

Europe needs to take urgent action to deal with the challenges of the 21st century, including tackling climate change and preparing citizens for massive technological developments. ERT's paper, Strengthening Europe's...

View Document
Shaping Competition Policy in the Era of Digitisation

In the digital economy, business models are focused on ecosystems of platforms. The amount of data that can now be processed and the power of algorithms can bring great benefits...
All Focus Areas

Strengthening Europe’s Place In The World
The European Union has benefited its citizens economically and socially, regardless of the current challenges.