AFPM is governed by a Board of Directors, comprised of representatives from each of our regular members. When the Board is not in session, it delegates authority to the AFPM Executive Committee to render judgments and govern the Association. The Board of Directors elects a chairman, seven vice presidents and a treasurer who, together with the immediate past chairman, comprise the Executive Committee. The Board also elects a president to serve as chief administrative officer of the Washington-D.C.-based staff and the headquarters office.
